Remember this quote from John C. Maxwell “We overexaggerate yesterday, we overestimate tomorrow and we underestimate today.”

How can your goals be a part of your everyday life? Can you put them on your calendar?

Here are some verses related to each chapter of The Finishing School. This is a great place to start as you make goals about health, prayer, friendships and more but don't stop with these. Search the Word to find verses that inspire you in your goals.
